Dear Justin:

I agree that discovery is not needed and that a motion to stay discovery is appropriate. I'll review your motion in detail and get back to you any revisions I have.

Sincerely,

Counsel,

We intend to file the attached motion to seek a stay of discovery and the other normal pretrial procedures contemplated by the Court's June 29 Scheduling Order.

Consistent with paragraph 1 of Judge Horan's Standing Order on Civil Motion Practice, we're seeking your position on the motion. Please advise whether the motion can be presented as joint, consent, or uncontested.

We left brackets in the proposed order for the dates by which briefs are to be filed. We'd propose 30 days from the July 24 scheduling conference, or August 23, for your brief in opposition; and 14 days from your filing, or September 6, for our reply brief.
